

This image shows a sheet of music paper with two identical systems. Each system consists of several musical staves. From top to bottom, the staves are: a treble clef staff with a melody line; a bass clef staff with a bass line; a staff with a diamond grid pattern; a staff with a scalloped edge pattern; a staff with a large circular motif and floral flourishes; a staff with a long horizontal bar containing six dots; and a final staff with a series of rhythmic symbols (vertical lines with flags). The paper is oriented vertically on the page.
